This is the final edition of Tuesdays with Mr. Knoll for the 2020-21 school year. I want to thank all of our parents for your continued support this school year. This has been a year like no other and it has taken a true collaborative effort to continue in-person and digital academy learning. Watch the mail for the summer edition of the Cardinal Communique in early July. It will contain highlights of the past semester as well as updates for the 2021-22 school year. As always, our website will be the hub of information over the summer. I wish everyone a safe, restful, and enjoyable summer break. We will be back in the fall to continue to highlight the tremendous accomplishments of our staff and students.

Joe Knoll, Superintendent
